

Art Quiz 4

1. Which British sculptor accompanied Captain Robert Falcon Scott as he set off on his Terra Nova expedition to the South Pole in 1910, and subsequently sculpted this commemorative statue of Captain Scott, which was unveiled in Christchurch, New Zealand, in 1917?

2. On what is Venus standing in Botticelli's Birth Of Venus?
3. What is the Renaissance painter Giuseppe Arcimboldo famous for incorporating in his head portraits?
4. What is the consession annual membership cost for National Museums Liverpool for either (a) an individual or (b) a couple? If you are a life member, award yourself this mark!

5. Who painted The Old Guitarist? For a bonus mark, in which American city would you be able to view it (post lockdown/covid)?

6. Which artist painted this famous portrait of Henry VIII, 1536 or 1937? Again, for a bonus mark, in which English city would you be able to view it?

7. In 1954, a portrait of Sir Winston Churchill was presented to him in Westminster Hall. Churchill hated it, and Lady Spencer-Churchill had it destroyed a few months later. Who had been commissioned to paint it?

8. What is the name of this Cambridge museum that houses one of the best collections of antiquities and art in the UK?

9. Where in Liverpool would you find the Tom Murphy sculpture Liverpool VC Memorial, commemorating Noel Chavasse VC and bar MC, and 15 other Liverpool-born VC recipients?

10. Identify the location pictured below.

