

Philosophy

It's not what you think. It's what you do every day when you stop to think 'why am I here' and 'how do I lead a good life?'

We are a friendly group. Our meetings are light hearted and not academic. We learn from each other as we go along and cover a wide range of topics from Greek philosophers like Plato and Aristotle to 20th century topics like Existentialism and Phenomenology.

Don't be put off by big words, your own life experiences covers it all. Come along to our meeting, you will not be disappointed and you will be made very welcome. As eastern philosopher Confucius said "The longest journey begins with the first step."

We meet at Kensington House on the Third Wednesday of each month at 2.30pm. Please feel free to contact me.
