

LIVERPOOL BIENNIAL

Friday 8th September 2023

Tate Liverpool

We are lucky to be offered a talk/tour of this amazing diverse exhibition which is spread all across Liverpool city and Pierhead.

We make your own way from Maghull Station for 12 15pm train, to meet at Tate 1.15 pm or go early for lunch in the lovely cafe.

Our talk is at the Tate, 1.30 pm. Entry free, talk £5.00

Booking and payment to Maureen or Jan at u3a desk Tuesday mornings.

This contemporary visual arts festival which takes place across Liverpool's public spaces, galleries and museums. Visitors to the city can enjoy a dynamic programme of free exhibitions, performances, screenings, community and learning activities and fringe events over a 14 week period that shine a light on our city's vibrant cultural scene.