

Victory in Europe 80th Anniversary Party Guidelines

- Please do not arrive at the church until 9:30 at the very earliest. Only the two main doors will be open for entry to the church.
- Remember entry will only be allowed on production of an authentic ticket. This sheet is not counted as a ticket.
- Costumes are encouraged but not compulsory. Boxed gasmasks, medals and other memorabilia add to the effect.
- Please make your way down the long corridor following the signs to the NAAFI Here you'll be able to pick up your cup of tea or coffee.
- Make your way into the main hall and we ask you to fill the tables from the front to the back.
- On the tables, you will find a plate, serviette, a 'Housey Housey' book and quiz sheets enough for one sheet between two. Extras will be available for solo use.
- Posters from WW2 will adorn the walls - see how many you recognise.
- Only official photographs taken by our own photographer will be allowed on our Facebook or our webpage.
- PLEASE DO NOT TAKE ANY PHOTOGRAPHS OF THE POSTERS
- Following refreshments and a chance to test out your knowledge with the quizzes, we will hold the 'Housey Housey' games (two only). Both are for a full house
- Following this please turn your chairs so that you can then comfortably sit and see the screen in front of you.
- Our final event will a sing song of the classics of the day accompanied by our ENSA host. We will hold a minute's silence during the songs.
- All attendees will be expected to help with clearing the hall at the end of our celebration.

Tuesday 6th May 2025